

Speedway Children's Charities

Privacy Policy

Speedway Children's Charities will not sell, share or trade our donor', volunteer or registrants names or personal information with any other entity or send mailings to our donors on behalf of other organizations.

This policy applies to all information received by Speedway Children's Charities, both online and offline, on any Platform ("Platform" includes the Speedway Children's Charities website and mobile applications), as well as any electronic, written, or oral communications.

To the extent that any donations are processed through a third-party provider, our donors' information will only be used for the purposes necessary to process the donation.
